LATE NEWS.

THE REGULATION STORM.

New York, Nov. 7.—The weather prospects for tomorrow are not assuring, according to the weather bureau. A heavy storm is now in progress in the lake region, and for this evening rain is threatened, probably the advance guard of the same storm. The duration of the storm will be about 24 hours, and behind it is a cold wave of considerable strength. The local weather bureau said this morning that the storm would probably extend from Virginia northward over the Middle Atlantic and New England states, and that before night a storm was probable. All over the rest of the country, cold and clear, according to indications. Arrangements have all been completed for the election in this city tomorrow. There will be a large force representing both parties at the polls, and if numbers of watchers is any evidence of an honest vote the ballot will be pure. On behalf of the federal authorities a force of supervisors, each with a United States marshal's certificate, will watch proceedings at the polls, keep the peace and watch out for alleged proposed frauds.

SENATOR QUAY TALKS.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Senator Quay today indulged in the first definite estimate regarding the result of the presidential election. "Senator," said a reporter to him this afternoon, "you have been reported as saying that you might be in a position to say something definite upon the result of the election sometime today. Will you say anything now upon that subject?" "I received a telegram today," he replied, "that leads me to believe that Harrison will be elected. In order to be elected he must carry New York, Indiana and Connecticut." "You think he will carry these states?" "I do. At any rate, that is the purport of my information from headquarters. I have no reason, however, to doubt this information and I think there will be no doubt about Harrison's election."

UNCLE SAM IS PRETTY NUMEROUS.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 7.—General Shelly, chairman of the Democratic state committee, this morning in an interview, said: "We will not permit deputy United States marshals to be inside the legal limits. The deputy marshals must remain 30 feet away from the polling places. Inside that line they have no legal right and the Democratic managers throughout the state have been so informed."

EVERY OTHER MAN AN OFFICER.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 7.—United States Marshal Baxter has sworn in a large number of deputy marshals in this city. Lieut. Gov. Sheehan's home, many of whom are old soldiers, at the polls tomorrow. Sheriff Beebe has also sworn in 250 special deputies and the police force has been increased by 75 specials. A clash between the local and federal officials is feared in the lower wards of the city. Marshal Baxter says the federal laws will be enforced.

THE TRUSTLE BROKE.

HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 7.—The trestle spanning a 40 foot ravine at Honey brook broke today, precipitating ten loaded cars and seven men to the bottom. Michael Karks was taken out dead and horribly mangled. Two or three others will die, and all are more or less bruised and badly shaken up.

ALL OF THEM GOOD.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Attorney General Miller returned today. He was asked if he anticipated trouble at the polls and replied that he did not. That the good sense and patriotism of the people in charge of the polling places would prevent violations of the law and breaches of the peace. He added that the U. S. marshals are supposed to be good men and their instructions are explicit, not to be aggressive or provoke hostilities. He felt sure that the deputy marshals would not invade the polling places without cause, or endeavor to show a wanton exercise of authority.

A DEAD CAPITALIST.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Charles O. Foster, ex-president of the Boston Sugar Refining company, died here this morning. He was very wealthy and has been devoting his means to real estate improvements since retiring from active management of the refinery.

MISTRESSES OF THE WHITE HOUSE.

There are now living but four ladies who have presided over the White House during former administrations. These are Mrs. Grant, who is living quietly in New York; Mrs. Garfield, who is enjoying in Ohio the income from the sum subscribed by the admirers of her husband after his death eleven years ago; Mrs. Harriet Lane Johnson, who is quietly closing a life full of happiness and honor at her residence in Baltimore; and Mrs. Grover Cleveland who enjoys the distinction of being the youngest mistress of the White House and being the only bride the president wedded there. Small as is the number of living wives of our ex-presidents, they are just double the number of living ex-presidents, who number but two.—Boston Herald.

LIFT YOUR HAT TO HER.

Lift your hat reverently when you pass the teacher of the primary school. She is the great angel of the republic. She takes the bantling fresh from the home nest, full of punts and passions—an ungovernable little wretch whose own mother honestly admits that she sends him to school to get rid of him. The lady who knows her business takes a whole carload of these anarchists, one of whom, single handed and alone, is more than a match for his parents, and at once puts them in the way of being useful and upright citizens. At what expense of toil, patience and soul weariness! Lift your hat to her.—Rural World.

"Yes, brethren," says the clergyman who is preaching the funeral sermon, "our departed brother was cut down in a single night—torn from the arms of his loving wife, who is thus left a disconsolate widow at the early age of 24 years."

"Twenty-two, if you please," says the widow in the front pew, emerging from her handkerchief for an instant.—Boston Globe.

ELECTION NEWS.

Everything went off smoothly up to going to press today. The vote will probably be light in the city as many parties had not paid poll taxes. At noon, in precinct 5, 80 votes had been cast, the Republicans leading, in 64 the Lopez precinct it was a tie, and in 25 there were 187 votes in and the Republicans a good distance in the lead.

In East Las Vegas it is hard to tell at present which side is ahead though it looks as if it was the Republicans.

Sapello has polled 75 votes and will likely vote a total of 100 and the Republicans are quite a good deal in the lead. Two years ago Joseph had 65 to Otero 10.

Rociada reports 45 votes cast, 22 People's and 12 Republican. As this one stood 37 for Joseph and 21 for Otero two years ago, we think it is estimated wrong.

Catron is reported as ahead at Mora and Agua Negra. It's safe to bet on him.

It is reported that would-be Boss C. Rudolph tried to disfranchise 75 men at San Geronimo today because they paid their poll tax to another school board than their own district. The men had their receipts and had the right to vote and he is an enemy to the American constitution who tries to prevent any man from voting the ticket of his choice. We understand that a writ of mandamus was asked from Judge O'Brien to compel the votes to be received, which was granted and Manuel C. de Baca went out to serve it.

A private dispatch received this afternoon states that New York would likely go Democratic.

WHAT A QUEEN CAN'T DO.

Queen Victoria is not allowed to handle a newspaper of any kind, or a magazine, or a letter except from her own family, and no member of the royal family or household is allowed to speak to her of any piece of news in any publication. All the information the queen is permitted to have must first be strained through the intellect of a man whose business it is to cut from the papers each day what he thinks she would like to know. These scraps he fastens on a silk sheet with a gold fringe all about it and presents it to her unfortunate majesty. The silken sheet with gold fringe is imperative for all communications to the queen.

Any one who wishes to send the queen a personal poem or a communication of any kind, except a personal letter, which the poor lady is not allowed to have at all, must have it printed in gilt letters on one of those silk sheets, with a gold fringe, just so many inches wide and no wider, all about it.

These gold trimmings will be returned in time, as they are expensive, and the queen is kindly and thrifty, but for the queen's presence they are imperative.

A party of hunters the other day, desiring to rest, laid their guns on a flat rock, near Ironton, Mo. Instantly the guns moved from their resting place and leaped up to a huge boulder a few feet distant. At first the men were terrified at this mysterious action, but they soon discovered that the boulder was composed of magnetic iron ore.
